

SHOT HERSELF IN CHURCH

Suicide of a Richmond Girl After Dr. Moses Hoge's Sermon.

UNREQUITED LOVE THE CAUSE

Miss Wilkinson and Marquess Were Engaged, But He Put Off the Marriage and Finally Broke the Contract—He Was Leading the Singing While She Prepared to Die.

Richmond, Va., June 30.—Miss Minnie Wilkinson, a young lady of high standing in social and religious circles, committed suicide in the Second Presbyterian Church, of which Rev. Dr. Moses Hoge is pastor, about seven o'clock this evening.

The act was committed in one of the pews not far from the altar, and the services were being held at the time. Dr. Hoge has just finished a masterly discourse, the choir was singing the closing hymn, when there came a report that was plainly heard by all present.

Miss Wilkinson had shot herself in the heart a little to the right of the center. Her clothing was burning slightly about her bosom.

BROKEN ENGAGEMENT.
Doctors were hastily called but could do nothing. One of the first persons to view the corpse was the venerable pastor, Dr. Hoge. He went up to the altar and then went away to break the news to the aged father and mother of the deceased. They were prostrated with grief.

Coroner Taylor decided an inquest unnecessary, and the body was turned over to the family.

Miss Wilkinson for several years had been engaged to Mr. E. B. Marquess, proprietor of a job printing house, and a nephew of Dr. Hoge's. He postponed the wedding, it is said, for some time, until finally a few weeks ago he told her that he had determined never to marry. This so distressed her she told her friends of her purpose to kill herself, but they dissuaded her.

HER LOVE LED THE SINGING.
The afternoon the lady left home alone to go to church, Dr. Hoge's services, somewhere in her clothing she concealed an old-fashioned army pistol. It is presumed that she went directly into the pew, heard the sermon, and then fired the fatal bullet. Mr. Marquess was leading the singing when the shot was fired. He had left before the dead body was found.

Miss Wilkinson was a lady of special character, very pious and a regular attendant at all church services. Marquess has always been regarded as a model young man. He has been a great worker in religious movements and lately has taken part in several missions.

So dense was the crowd of people that it was impossible to get near the body.

REMARKS BY THE PASTOR.
The funeral services were held at 10 o'clock this morning at the residence of the deceased.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

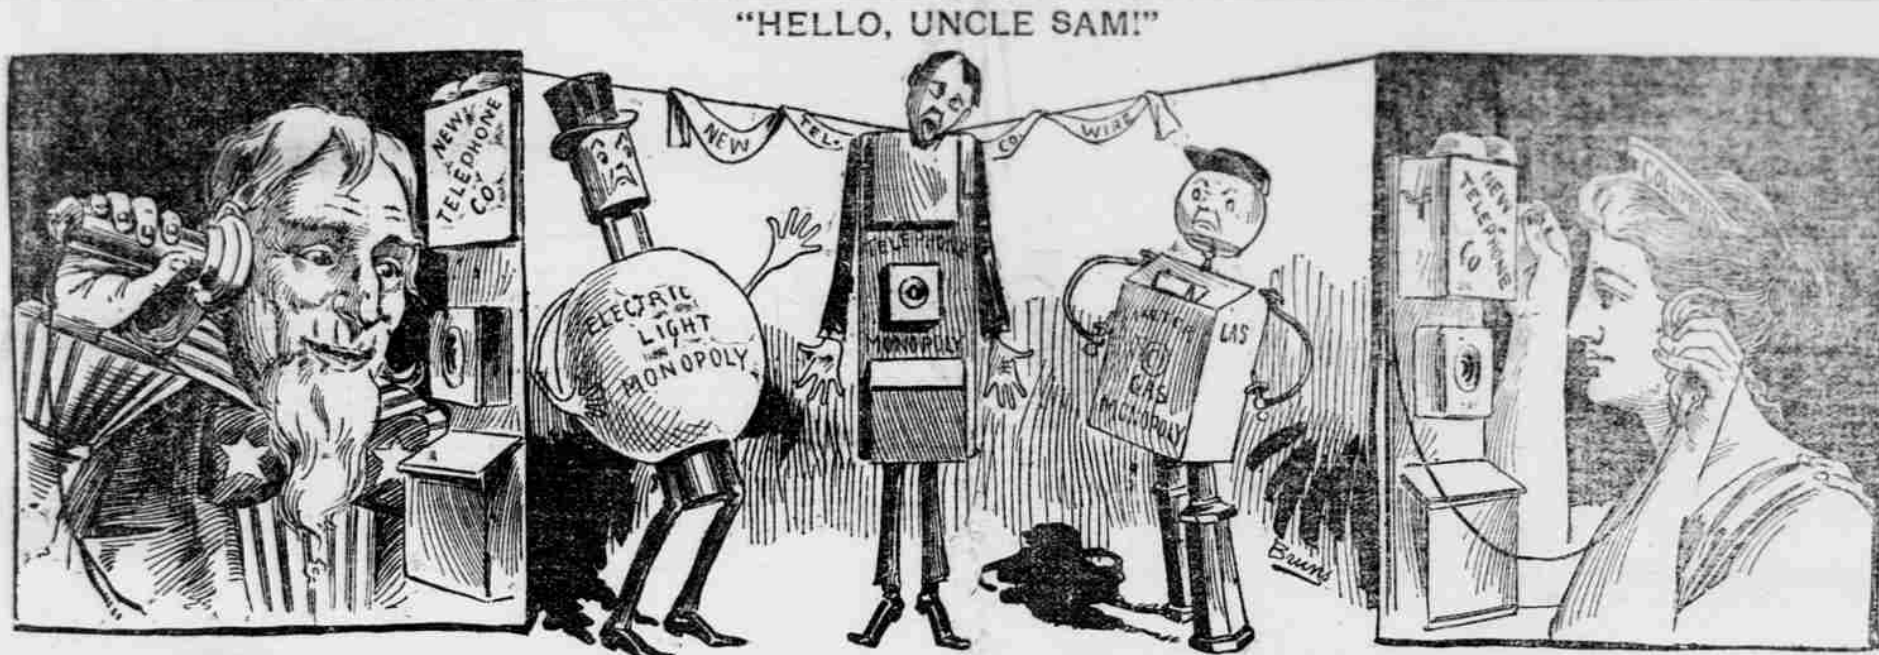

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

Dr. Hoge said that the lady was a very pious and devoted woman, and that her death was a great loss to the church and to the community.

"Hello, Columbia. This works all right. Now let's get after some of the other Washington Trusts!"

RIFLES ARE IN ST. LOUIS

They Brought the First Music to Reach Camp Hancock.

Accompanied by the Mt. Pleasant Drum Corps They Marched in Fine Style to the Grounds.

(Special to The Times.)

St. Louis, Mo., June 30.—It was not until dark this evening that there was any music at Camp Hancock. It came with the arrival of the Mount Pleasant Drum and Bugle Corps and the National Rifles from Washington, D. C. They came marching in fine style, but when they struck the mud that surrounded the camp they broke ranks and ploughed their way through as best they could.

From early morning until nearly 2 o'clock the rain came down almost in sheets. The grounds were drenched, and so were the men, and a more bedraggled lot of men in uniform has never been seen. The possession of the camp along about 8 o'clock, would be hard to find. Furthermore, it was no easy matter to take possession of the camp, for so soft had the heavy rain made the face track, which surrounded Camp Hancock, that it was like crossing a quagmire to get to the tents.

But the members of the National Guard were equal to the emergency, and they waded through the mud with the best possible grace and took possession of the camp.

The drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

The first of the rain had stopped, and the drums and bugles were heard before the first of the rain had stopped.

CLOSE TO HIGH PLACES

Enforcement of Edmunds Law to Be Checked.

EFFECT OF MAXWELL'S CASE

It Was All Right as Long as Only

Negroes Were Arrested, But It Must Go No Further—Precedents for Proctor's Course—Selling Always Reported to By Detectives.

The developments in criminal court, No. 1, give color to current gossip that the attack made upon Detective Proctor for his arrest of G. H. Maxwell and Miss Fyann is part of an attempt to make odious and break down the law against violations of the Seventh Commandment. The effort has, it is said, the strongest kind of backing, and the reason for it lies in the possibility of its reaching into high places and sending to the penitentiary persons never suspected of violations of law.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

As long as the prosecutions were confined to some hundreds of obscure and poor whites and blacks they were well enough, and the law was doing a good work in breaking up evil practices; but as soon as it is applied to persons of high position and high social standing, it is no longer a law, but a mere tool of the government.

SEIZED IN BERING SEA.

English Sealing Schooner Captured by the Revenue Cutter Rush.

Seattle, Wash., June 30.—The steamer Chinook, which arrived from Cook's Inlet today, brings news of the seizure of the English sealing schooner Salva by the U. S. revenue cutter Rush.

BURIED UNDER RAG BALES

Two Men Killed and Eight Injured at a Factory Fire.

Working the Hose in the Top Story When It Collapsed and Hurled Them Into the Cellar.

Worcester, Mass., June 30.—A fire in the rag shop of the Hubby Manufacturing Company in Brackett court early this morning caused the death of two firemen and injured eight others, and caused a financial loss of about $4,000. The dead were John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

The injured are: Deputy Chief Engineer George S. Coleman and Capt. W. N. Avery, John P. Casey, 34, and John P. Casey, 34.

RUSSIA READY FOR WAR

Eighty Thousand Soldiers Gathered at Vladivostok Secretly.

PACIFIC FLEET ALSO THERE

Entrance to the Harbor Is Planted Full of Torpedoes and the Utmost Caution Is Exercised—Secrecy Enforced on Outgoing Merchantmen—Significance of the New Railway Line.

Tacoma, Wash., June 30.—The Norwegian steamer, Oscar II, which arrived today eighteen days from Vladivostok, Siberia, brings news that the indications are good for another Oriental war.

Unknown to the outside world, Capt. Sanderson, of the steamer, says that Russia has massed 80,000 men at Vladivostok, and it is believed in Siberia that preparations are being made for an advance on Japan.

Capt. Sanderson says: "Russia has been secretly but lively at work and in the event of trouble with Japan is preparing to hurl a formidable naval and land force into the coveted territory which Japan has wrested from China."

SECURITY MAINTAINED.
The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes, and the utmost caution is exercised on outgoing merchantmen.

The Russian ships and troops have been massed at Vladivostok, where the secret is jealously guarded. The entrance to the harbor is planted full of torpedoes,